AFTER INSTALLING

Now, you've downloaded the app. But since its not located in the Apple Store, you'll need to give permission to run it. It only takes a second. Go to: Settings>General>Device Management>BUMBLE AND BUMBLE, LLC. Then, click 'Trust BUMBLE AND BUMBLE, LLC' (you can trust us, obvs).

REQUEST ACCOUNT

Almost there. Now, at the bottom of your screen, you'll see a Request Account prompt. Simply enter your details and submit. We know you're excited to start the app – but approval should only take a sec.

Once approved, agree to "push notifications" to make sure you don't miss out on all the epic info and inspo we have lined up for you.

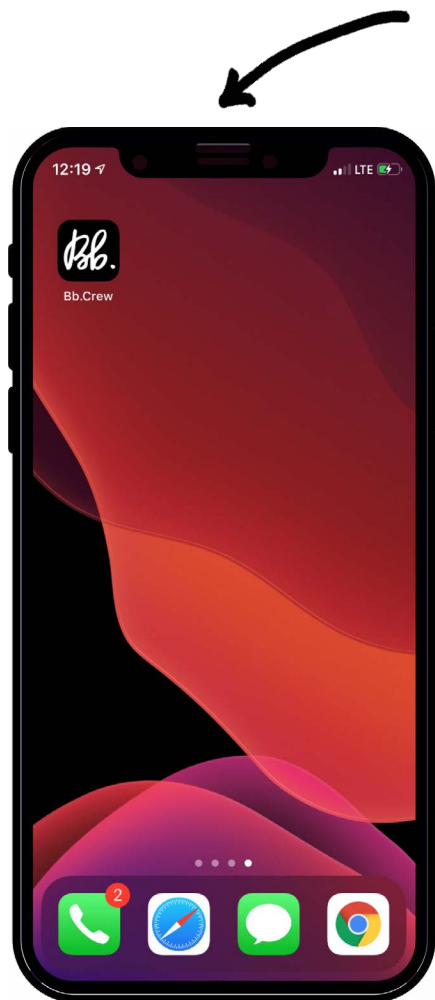

CONNECT ALL YOUR DEVICES

Got an ipad or tablet? Now that you've set up your smartphone, save the link – and follow these steps to get connected on all of your devices.

TAKE THE TOUR

CONGRATS, YOU DID IT.

To get started, click the Bb. icon on your screen. Give it a minute to load (it's quicker than a bang trim, to be honest) and you'll be transported to the homepage.

HOME IS WHERE THE ART IS.

You made it to the homepage (#happydance). From here, you'll be able to access everything you need – from class info and handy forms, to credits and...drumroll please...a community of fellow stylists. On the homepage, you'll see a Sidebar Option button (three horizontal lines) and a gear button to access your Settings.

SO MUCH TO 'DO.

Basically, the sidebar will be your BFF. Check out all the tabs for features, but the first four are where you'll find some incredibly useful NE resources.

CLASS IN SESSION.

Here, you'll select NE classes from the Bb.U Network Education School. Simply select Teach: Classes – and they're divided into four categories:

- 1) Fundamentals
- 2) Create Your Own
- 3) Inspirational
- 4) Product Knowledge Classes

Pick your preference.

THE PAPERWORK.

Need Network Educator forms (think: blank calendars, staff surveys, etc.). No problem. Select the Forms tab. You can also access ones specific to owner-managers, like Pricelists or Credit Card forms.

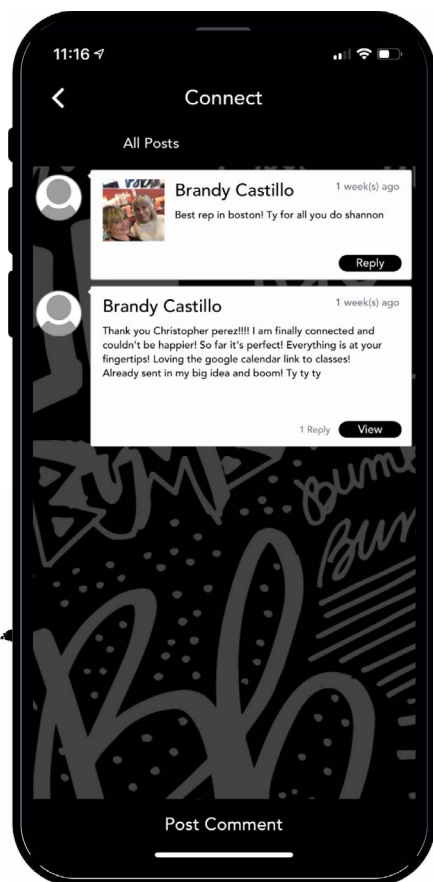

CREDIT WHERE IT'S DUE.

You taught an awesome class. Don't be shy, take the credits. Click on the Credits tab and log in to our legacy system using the Network Resources website that's linked to the app. Then all you'll need is your username and password.

DON'T FORGET TO CONNECT.

This. Is. Big. Now you can connect with your fellow stylists (near and far) about all things Bumble and bumble – from what's trending to trouble-shooting, inspo and more. It's time to talk hair.

ON A SIDE NOTE.

Now, that you're up and running and in love with the app, it's time to explore the sidebar tabs – including the latest, greatest product launches, surveys, links to our Bumble.LIVE team, the Bb.U schedule, social media connections, and a rundown of our "lust-have" products.

That's it. Happy app-ing.

XO, Bb.
